

Company Secretarial

During uncertain trading times, dealing with the nitty gritty of complying with the Companies Act can seem trivial.

Unfortunately, Her Majesty's Government doesn't see it this way.

Credit crunch or no credit crunch the same returns need to be completed, the same deadlines met.

The key is to find a compromise which lets you focus on the big issues and confidently delegate the regulatory stuff to avoid the raft of potential penalties non compliance brings.

Sibbalds offers you a comprehensive company secretarial service which will keep you and your business squeaky clean.

Our highly experienced team have developed efficient and reliable working systems to create a straightforward, 'no-fuss' company secretarial resource you can depend on.

So you can focus your energy on the more important tasks which support and grow your business.

Our company secretarial services include:

- Company formation
- Maintaining your statutory records
- Completing and submitting statutory returns
- Helping you comply with your statutory responsibilities

“ Sibbalds offers you a comprehensive company secretarial service which will keep you and your business squeaky clean.